What is ngVikings?

ngVikings are a series of community-driven events across the Nordic countries. Our talks and workshops will be mostly about Angular and other technologies related to the Angular framework. Our goal is to strengthen the Angular community in the Nordics by bringing it together, while inspiring and learning from each other. Nothing fuels collaboration like meetings in real life.

The first ngVikings event is scheduled for the 11th & 12th of February in Copenhagen, Denmark. This event will gather 300+ front-end developers from different Nordic countries together in Copenhagen. It will also be the first Angular conference hosted in the Nordic countries.

ngVikings is a 100% community-driven event comprised of many Nordic Angular groups such as:

- AngularJS Copenhagen
- GDG Copenhagen
- AngularJS Oslo
- AngularJS Gothenburg
- ngAarhus
- ngStockholm
- Angular Finland

Venue & Date

The first ngVikings community event is scheduled for the 11th & 12th of February 2017 at IT University of Copenhagen.

Why is it worth it to sponsor ngVikings?

At ngVikings you will meet experienced front-end developers and people who are fascinated by modern web technologies, who are constantly pursuing new thoughts and ideas. There are many case studies proving that the Nordic Angular community is motivated to try out new frameworks and new ideas. Our attendees have the potential to be your dream customers.

What you get?

- Direct access to 300+ front-enders
- Venue to advertise your business among the attendees
- Opportunity to touch base with the community about your products or new ideas

It is not about the money

Most ngVikings use up all their sponsor and ticket money in planning the event, but when there is a surplus, it is used to benefit the community and it will not be treated as profit to be pocketed by the organizers.

Surplus money is used for things like:

- Funding an ongoing Angular meetup group's get-togethers
- Seed money for the next ngVikings event
- Donations
